LOTUS POSITION

The multicolor pattern of the Sendai tiles from Country Floors was drawn from a Japanese 12-petaled lotus found in a Victorian pattern book. The encaustic ceramic tiles come in more than 20 inlay colors and are suitable for walls and floors. The 7"-triangular tiles are $24 each. 212-627-8300; countryfloors.com

FINE LINES

French designer Alberto Pinto has teamed with bath manufacturer THG to create Le 11 Widespread Lavatory faucet. Not only does it boast a clean, angular appearance, but when turned on, the fixture releases a flat "blade" of water. Cross or lever handles are available. Prices start at $1,825. 954-425-8225; thgusa.com and-match, recycled carpet tiles are now ikat, a vivid, ikat-inspired pattern. The soft, ls can be arranged to form diagonal stripes

; their not-quite-perfect alignment results in ct motifs. The design is offered in five color-lt, shown, and costs $14 per 20"-square tile.
